Trooper Island Camp was developed by Kentucky State Police as a public service for KY youth. TFCA students traveled to the camp near Dale Hollow Lake for a fall retreat. During their time at the camp, the students enjoyed the beautiful surroundings as they strengthened their connection with their Savior.

TO BEGIN...

Enlist troops with hunting experience like Vernon Brewer and make them take an oath.

Demand lots of target practice.

Provide them with quality ammunition.

Give the order (from way back on your horse) to charge the enemy!

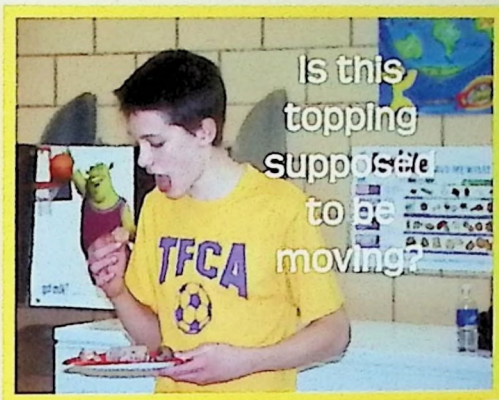
THEN...

Warn your troops about legends like Deadeye Daniel and his sidekick, Kristen who can talk so fast that she can confuse an entire regiment .

Use undercover spies like Tiffany Two-Fingers, the unsung heroine of many battles.

Teach the troops to separate enemy soldiers from their main forces.

Finally collect the fallen enemy and have no mercy...make them provide pizzas for all the victorious troops.



TFCA students enjoyed a favorite lock-in activity: FOOD! Principal Lucas and Mrs. Bradshaw stayed awake all night! Honest! Well...Mrs. B might have slept a minute.

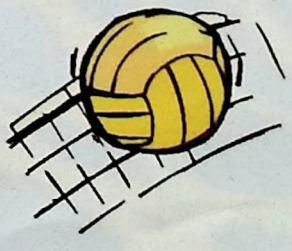
Middle and high school students have choices of quality competitive sports and extracurricular activities when they enroll at TFCA. During the 2007-2008 year, academic and athletic teams as well as individuals garnered top prizes in their competitions. Athletic Director Mindy Peck organized sports from soccer to basketball. Academic Competition sponsor, Carol Roach, provided opportunities for mental challenges and achievements for ambitious minds. Writers could excel through the Association of Christian Schools International competitive writing program sponsored by Fran Bradshaw. Thanks to the Wednesday activity period instituted by Principal Lucas, noncompetitive activities were available including Mrs. Young's Stamping Up workshops. Question anyone who might express the opinion that a small school does not offer equal opportunities for growth and fun... at least when that school is The Frankfort Chrisitian Academy!

Basketball Teams 7th and 8th Grades

Basketball is a major sport for both genders at TFCA. Much gratitude goes to Capital City Christian Church for being the home gym for so long. We look forward to playing in the beautiful gym on campus soon.

What is your game average, Mascot?

Quit you like men and be strong.
1 Corinthians 16:13



TFCA Varsity Basketball 2007-2008

Watching these young men play each game was inspiring. They played as Christians who loved the game and who wanted to win. After every game, I would leave thinking...if only I had the zest that they had demonstrated no matter what the scoreboard reported...and they always treated their opponents as a valued brothers in Christ.

O. Henry provided a wonderful vehicle for a fun night at the theater when he wrote "The Ransom of Red Chief." Mrs. Hoehner wisely selected a perfect cast for the musical version. With the lead of Red Chief played very enthusiastically by David Roach and strong performances from the rest of the cast, the audience, Mrs. Hoehner, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Bradshaw were well-pleased.. The stage crew anchored by Josh Crosby and Brandyn Shepherd did a great job making the play look and sound great. A special thanks to Mr. Jeff Crosby and Mr. Bill Nallia for their wonderful work and to the parents for their great refreshments.

What a tremendous group effort!
